

The ongoing economic recession represents a fundamental break with recent history: growth has ceased and may never return in the same way, because energy and resource limits are increasingly constraining economic expansion. But families and communities may actually be better off in a sustainable, "steady-state" economy -- one that values people and nature over high-rate financial returns.

RICHARD HEINBERG

Life After Growth: Why the Economy Is Shrinking and What to Do About It

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 2010

INTRO: THE END OF CHEAP OIL - 6:30 PM
RICHARD HEINBERG: LIFE AFTER GROWTH - 7:00 PM

TRINITY ST PAUL'S CHURCH, 427 BLOOR STREET WEST

PWYC (suggested $5)

INFO & RSVP - www.meetup.com/PostCarbonTorontoMeetup

POST CARBON TORONTO IS A GROUP OF TORONTO CITIZENS WORKING TOGETHER TO ENVISION AND TRANSITION TORONTO AND ITS BIOREGION INTO SUSTAINABLE, LOW ENERGY COMMUNITIES. WWW.POSTCARBONTORONTO.ORG